

BRATTLEBORO FAMILY OF FIFTEEN MEMBERS

MR. AND MRS. JOHN I. LANE AND THEIR 13 CHILDREN.

Back row, left to right—Florence A., 14 years; Lawrence M., 11; Edith S., 13. Third row—John I. Lane, Mrs. John I. Lane. Second row—Orville E., 9; Edward H., 12; Robert M., 3; Herman J., 2; Clifford I., 8; Myrtle D., 7. Front row—Grace A., 4; Chester W., 15; Harold M., 16; George H., 19.

Not only have Mr. and Mrs. John Isaac Lane of Northern avenue three young sons in Company I, V. N. G., but they have 10 other children who are left to them at home. When the family was all together the day before the three brothers went to the state camp it was the largest family group, all of whom were living at home, in Brattleboro. The Phoenix arranged to have a group picture taken, the only one the family has had taken in recent years.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane were married in Malden, Mass., in 1895. Before her marriage Mrs. Lane was Miss Eva Smith. They lived in various places and came to Brattleboro from Enfield, N. H., in March. Mr. Lane took a position in E. L. Hildreth & Co.'s printing plant, where he is a compositor.

In speaking of her three oldest children leaving home to go to the front Mrs. Lane smiled and said that they came from fighting stock. Her mother's two brothers fought in the Civil war, one of them dying on a southern battlefield, and Mrs. Lane's brother served as a cavalryman in the Spanish-American war. She said it seemed a little hard to have all three of them go at once, but the two younger boys wanted so badly to follow in the footsteps of their older brother that neither father nor mother found the heart to refuse their permission.

George H., the oldest son, has been employed in Lowell, Mass., as a cook, but when the call to arms came he hurried to Brattleboro to obtain the consent of his parents to his enlistment and was followed immediately by his two brothers. Only two were able to obtain uniforms here and Harold had no uniform when the picture was taken, although he had been sworn into the service at that time.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

Gains of the Russians Continue—Allies Successful on Verdun Front.

The European war despatches of the past week have related wholly to the fight on the Verdun front and to the successes of the Russian army.

The Germans claim to have repulsed attacks at various points, but the French and British war offices send out encouraging reports. The British claim to have repeatedly raided German trenches under cover of gas and smoke attacks and to have inflicted heavy losses in addition to bringing back many prisoners.

The Russians continue to advance steadily and are evidently sweeping the Austrians before them along a war front of many miles. A despatch yesterday recorded the capture of more than 10,000 prisoners and 221 officers.

The statements from Petrograd indicate that the number of Austrians who have surrendered to Russia within the past few weeks aggregates at least 200,000 to 300,000.

Manufacture of paper in this country consumes nearly 5,000,000 cords of wood annually.

Perhaps the British navy's sweeping activities are responsible for the fact that brooms are 100 per cent dearer than before the war.
